Autumn Newsletter December 2018

Dear Friends of Pield Heath

With Christmas just around the corner, I am sure that you are looking forward to a well-earned festive break.

As we reflect on the term there were many activities which you can read about in this newsletter. Among the highlights were our seasonal performances 'Christmas Around the World' and 'Bethlehem'. Both the upper and lower school performances were creative and inspiring. In a simple but powerful way, the students expressed the real meaning of Christmas, by sharing their unique gifts and talents.

On behalf of everyone at Pield Heath, thank you for your support. As the year draws to a close - may you have the gladness of Christmas which is hope; the spirit of Christmas which is peace; the heart of Christmas which is love.

We look forward to welcoming everyone back on Tuesday 8th January 2019.

CHRISTMAS

The Mexican Posada Tradition

As part of our Advent celebrations we were pleased to participate in the Mexican Tradition of Posada (a Spanish word meaning 'Inn'). Posada celebrations began in Mexico where two young people were chosen to dress up as Mary and Joseph and travel from house to house in their room to figures of Mary and Joseph for a day before Christmas. This helps us to make room for Jesus in our lives, in our hearts and in our school community. More info here.

Christmas Performances

We welcomed all the Friends of Pield Heath to our Christmas performances. They were a celebration of drama, dance, music and song entitled 'Christmas Around the World' and 'Bethlehem'.

Thanks to Beth Wright, Antony Colagrossi, Petra Voniatis and all the staff and students for the dedication in preparing the performance. It was a wonderful opportunity to share the blessings of Christmas.

We had our Christmas Fayre on Thursday 13th December which was opened by The Mayor of Hillingdon Cllr John Morgan. We had a large selection of stalls and festive entertainment. We also had the draw for our Grand Christmas Raffle. Thank you to all those who so kindly donated prizes for our raffle.

Special thanks to John & Ann Cook, Sandra Parsons, the group of volunteers from Brunel University, Metro Bank as well as to all the other volunteers who willingly gave their time to help on the day.

Thanks to your generosity the total amount raised was £1,144.46. Well done everyone. Your time and support is greatly appreciated.
