

Forest Schools

We are really excited to share that we have recently started Forest Schools. It definitely had its challenges, but overall it was a great success. The students engaged well, showed lots of curiosity, and responded positively to learning outdoors. We had a fantastic time, exploring, learning, and enjoying the outdoor environment.

